Fascinating combinations in harmonious balance between past and present are showcased within a precious exhibition space that tells the evolution of Angelo Cappellini during the recurring and unmissable dates of the Salone del Mobile, from 17-22 April 2018.

Semantic and stylistic contaminations alternate in the enchanting bergère (art.30042) of baroque inspiration: the wooden structure evokes the craftsmanship of the past whilst an exclusive blue satin fabric - enhanced by a lively geometric pattern - revitalizes the appeal of the seat.

Cabriole legs and walnut finish for the new sofa by Angelo Cappellini (art.11491), recalling the refined stylistic criteria of the Louis XV style. A precious damask textile of intense teal shades with ton sur ton decorations illuminates the fascinating proposal, enlivening its graceful silhouette.

Showing a strong woodworking vocation, this year Angelo Cappellini will present an innovative project rich in blending and overlapping. Bespoke solutions of dynamic contrasts that find a home in exclusive boutique hotels, charming private residences and refined restaurants all around the world.
